C&A officially opened its first store in Groningen in 1902. At that time, the shop was located on Vismarkt. Today, however, the large, recognisable C&A building most locals associate with the brand is located at the corner of Herestraat and Zuiderdiep. The relocation occurred in the late 1920s. In May 2025 construction fences have been placed around the store. The building is undergoing a major renovation that is predicted to last until the end of 2026. The building will receive new facades, and the retail space will be reduced. In its place, 44 rental homes
